

BRADLEY HILLS

THE OFFICE MAN'S SUMMER SITE

Only Thirty Minutes' Ride from
The Heart of the City to the Heart of Nature

Get Away from the Stifling Heat of the City

There is no need to suffer the strength-sapping heat of the hot summer months, which is made almost unbearable by radiation from the paved city streets. You can escape the heat by purchasing a home in Bradley Hills—the most beautiful suburban location of the National Capital, and the most promising from the profitable investment viewpoint.

Bradley Hills is only a half hour's ride from the city, yet as peaceful and restful as the deep recesses of the Maine forests.

Bradley Hills now has a through car service from Fifth and F Street N. W., running west on F Street and Connecticut Avenue to Bradley Hills without change. Cars leave Fifth and F Streets at 7:30, 9:05, and 10:50 a. m.; 12:35, 2:20, 4:35, 6:05, and 10:43 p. m. —a more frequent schedule will soon be put into effect. A boulevard connecting Chevy Chase with Great Falls and traversing Bradley Hills is progressing rapidly.

Take a car ride this afternoon or tomorrow and see for yourself the many natural beauties and advantages of Bradley Hills, the improvements now in progress, and the beautiful homes springing up. You'll be convinced that both as a home and a business investment, Bradley Hills has no equal.

One to Five Acres of Ground For the Price

Of the Average City Lot

Of unexcelled natural beauty, and now being supplied with electric light, and pure water, Bradley Hills is without doubt the "one best bet" for the office-bound city man. On a high elevation with gently sloping hills, green fields, and wooded valleys of incomparable beauty, it is just the place for a cool and inviting home site—where you can enjoy restfulness in the true sense of the word. In justice to yourself and to your family, don't fail to give this opportunity a close inspection.

Sixteenth Street Highlands

"The Premier Suburb of Washington"

Why has SIXTEENTH STREET HIGHLANDS surpassed all other suburbs in rapid growth and general development? Why is the aggregate value of HOMES now actually under construction many times greater than in all the other suburbs of Washington combined? Why is it that so many business men, professional men and government officials are locating their HOMES here? It is because, after careful investigation of the various suburban localities, buyers realize that this property possesses substantial and exclusive advantages over any other in the vicinity of Washington. They appreciate the nearness and easy access to the city, its fine street car facilities, its peerless landscape beauty, its charming environments, its high, healthy location, its salubrious atmosphere, its proximity to the great National Park, and scores of other attractive features. Moreover, they KNOW that property so splendidly situated is bound to increase rapidly in value.

It will be well worth while for you to come up to SIXTEENTH STREET HIGHLANDS and see for yourself what is going on. The magnitude of the building operations in progress here will be a revelation to you. You will be especially interested in the splendid types of suburban HOMES we are building and selling. They are so different from anything you have seen elsewhere—and so much better. Better designs. Better materials. Better workmanship. Better locations. BETTER VALUE. Various sizes. Diversified types of architecture. Wide range of prices. Reasonable terms.

Splendid lots for sale on or near Sixteenth Street. SOLD DIRECT BY THE OWNERS at a great saving of cost to purchasers. MAIN OFFICE at end of Fourteenth Street car line.

PROHIBITION ELECTION CAMPAIGN LAUNCHED

Official Notice, Announcing September 22 for State-wide Vote, is Posted in Alexandria.

"DRYS" PREDICT BIG MAJORITY

Alexandria, Va., July 17.—Official notice that an election will be held here September 22 next on State-wide prohibition was posted this afternoon by City Sergeant R. H. Cox, following the receipt of an official communication from James H. Hayes, Jr., chief clerk in the office of the secretary of the Commonwealth. The fight between the "wets" and "drys" will be waged from now on, Alexandria, of course, will vote strongly on the "wet" side, and the general interest, however, is centered by residents of Alexandria on the outcome in the State. Predictions have been made by the anti-saloon people that they will carry the State by a big majority. The liquor interests have not made any claims regarding figures, but are hard at work on their campaign.

Recently a petition was circulated in Alexandria asking the governor to call a State-wide election and ninety signatures were obtained. In Alexandria County a total of 300 signed the petition.

"It is my prerogative to make the turn that way," was what William Jackson, colored, an elderly cart driver told Justice Catton in the Police Court today when arraigned on a charge of violating the traffic laws by making the wrong turn at the intersection of King and Washington streets.

"It is also my prerogative to impose a fine of $1," said the court. Jackson appeared perfectly satisfied after having used the word "perogative," and left minus $1.

As a result of the crusade inaugurated yesterday by the police against violators of the traffic regulations, fourteen drivers of various kinds of vehicles were summoned to appear in Police Court today.

Many of those cited failed to appear and forfeited $1 collateral each. Those who put in their appearance were fined $1 each.

Since court convened this morning many additional arrests were made and these cases will be called tomorrow.

A number of cases of typhoid fever have been reported by physicians. Several cases are being treated at the Alexandria Hospital.

Immunes of the Children's Home were the guests yesterday of J. W. Rich, superintendent of the Washington-Virginia Railway on a trip to Glen Echo Park, Md. The children were accompanied by Miss Timlow, superintendent; two assistants from the home, and Mrs. H. R. Catton, Mrs. Percy E. Clift and Mrs. L. E. Uhler. They were taken to a large sight-seeing automobile.

Since the sixteenth century 25 comets have been discovered, of which 106 were periodic, 19 have been seen at more than one return, 56 have been visible to the naked eye, and 7 have been seen in full daylight.

SENATORS TO REPORT MERITS OF TELEPOST

Inquiry Will Be Made Into System as to Its Use in Connection with Postoffice Department.

The Senate yesterday passed a remarkable resolution creating a special committee of five Senators "to investigate and report upon the merits of the telepost, now in operation between St. Louis and Chicago, as to word-carrying capacity, accuracy, economy, secrecy, and general efficiency; as to its use in connection with the Postoffice Department; and as to any obstacles in the way of its extension, either in connection with the government or otherwise."

The resolution was amended by the Senate Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads by adding to the above language the following:

"And that the said committee is authorized to investigate and report upon the merits of the system of any other person or company that may offer to perform the said service in connection with the Postoffice Department."

QUEBEC WARS ON POOLROOMS.

Montreal, Que., July 17.—The police today inaugurated a crusade against poolrooms, following a raid upon an establishment in Dorchester street west, where, according to the detectives, was a "fake" poolroom. Into which dupes were lured. The raiders found more than $100,000 in counterfeit money, between $5,000 and $5,500 in real money, telephone instruments, telegraph keys, tickers, form charts, and other paraphernalia. Discovery of this place convinced the authorities that real poolrooms are doing business in the city.

ALBANIAN REBELS STILL BUSY.

Durrazzo, Albania, July 17.—Albanian rebels are again active near this city, the Albanian capital. They captured Spilati on the eastern outskirts of the city, today, and threw up entrenchments. They are evidently preparing for another attack.

WIND CAUSES SEA COLLISION.

Toulon, France, July 17.—During a gale today the French torpedo boat Mistral slipped her anchor and was driven by the wind upon the submarine Le Verrier. Both ships were seriously damaged.

CZAR HONORS STABBED MONK.

St. Petersburg, July 17.—The mystic lay monk, Gregory Rasputin, who was stabbed by a woman while on a visit to his native village of Pokrovsky, will be brought here next week on special orders from his friend, Czar Nicholas. A dispatch received here today said that Rasputin is recovering and will get well.

GERMAN LINE GETS DAMAGES.

London, July 17.—A verdict was handed down in the Admiralty Court today.

awarding a heavy sum to the North German Lloyd for damages sustained by the Kaiser Wilhelm II in collision with the British tramp freighter Incarnate, off Southampton, on June 17.

TWO STOWAWAYS DROWNED.

Montreal, July 17.—Two stowaways, who hid themselves on the liner Mount Temple when that vessel sailed from Antwerp, plunged overboard near Cape Chatou on Monday, and were drowned. The captain reported their loss to officials here today.
